

Salisbury

Business Improvement District

Salisbury BID e-newsletter #22

Issued: 10th March 2017

Please circulate this newsletter to your staff and colleagues.

Ranger News

The BID City Rangers are busy on Salisbury's streets interacting with businesses and the public. If you would like to receive a visit from the Rangers, please email ranger@salisburybid.co.uk or call 01722 658000.

We are delighted to announce that we have now recruited a new BID city ranger to fill the vacancy left by Richard's departure. Our new Ranger, Nathan Bull (pictured above right), has now started and is out on the ground visiting businesses. Feel free to stop him and say hello!

- This month the Rangers have been working closely with city centre residents, educating on when rubbish collection days - to prevent rubbish sitting on our streets longer than necessary.
- Liaising with local authorities and agencies to return pavements filled with tarmac back to original paving stones.

St Patrick's Day!

Help us to help you, by telling us what you are doing, what you are excited about, and what's going on in our city!

Salisbury BID is committed to supporting its levy payers, so if you are doing something - we want to hear about it. Whether you are throwing an event or simply have some news to share then let us know so we can share in the excitement and spread the good news on our Visit Salisbury website, on Twitter and on Facebook. With St Patrick's Day next week, we'd love to hear of any related events/ stories that you have and any more going onward in the year. If you have something to share then please email info@salisburybid.co.uk or alternatively tweet us at @salisburybid or @VisitSalisbury_

New business

We welcome to Salisbury Cook opening in Minster Street on Friday 10th March. Cook sells hand prepared freezable food, and welcomes anyone who lives or works in Salisbury to go along in the first few days of opening for lots of tasters and samples. Visit their website for more details.

W.Carter & Son Bicentenary

Congratulations to one of our levy-payers W.Carter & Son on their 200th year of business, having been trading in the same location in Salisbury since 1817. Brothers Brian and Tad Holmes have been in the business for over 50 years and their grandfather was the first Holmes family member to join the business in partnership with the Carter family.

FSB Curry Night

This FSB curry evening has been designed to provide the opportunity to have all the advantages of meeting and talking to potential contacts but without a formal agenda or structure, just a pleasant evening of chat, networking and great food on 21st March.

Cost: £20 for member plus 1 guest, £10 for an individual member, £15 for an individual non-member. For more information and to book your space please click here.

Street Pastors

The Chapel Nightclub and Salisbury Street pastors have teamed up to run a fundraising evening on Saturday 25th March, 7pm-11pm at The Chapel. There will be a 2 course meal, live music and a raffle, tickets are £30 each. For ticket contact millie@chapelnightclub.co.uk.

The Salisbury Big Business Event is back from the 25 - 27 April in The Guildhall and Market Place in Salisbury City Centre!

Organised by Salisbury City Council, Wiltshire Council, Salisbury Federation of Small Business, Salisbury Business Improvement District, Blue Frontier, Salisbury Journal and Salisbury Chamber of Commerce, the event is now in its 6th year!

Highlights of this year include a three day Federation of Small Business showcase and regional seminars, the Salisbury Journal Jobs Fair and Salisbury City Council's Big Business Expo.

See you all there!

Salisbury Big Business Event 2017

The Salisbury Big Business Event is back in 2017 from 25th-27th April, and is now in its sixth year! This event is set to inspire all types of business from start-ups to international companies. There will be with seminars, workshops, advice clinics, networking events, a large expo and lots more. Stands can now be booked for the Salisbury & Wiltshire Big Business Expo will be on Salisbury Market Place, 26 - 27 April. This is a perfect place to promote, network and gain new business. Join us at this two day event and book your place now! Exhibition space starts from only £75 plus VAT.

For more information on this event go to www.salisburybigbusiness.co.uk.